Biography

Ricardo G. Moura currently serves as the Firm's Operations Coordinator and focuses on the Firm's efficient and effective operation and developing strategic plans for future practice and operational needs. Operational excellence is a top priority and I make it my mission to deliver results and add value to the Firm and our staff.

Previously, Ricardo worked for a manufacturing plant where he was responsible for planning, executing, directing and coordinating all personnel functions related to employment, salary and benefits. In that role, he developed new business relationships with various state agencies, colleges/universities and non-profit organizations for new employee and intern training programs. Ricardo also created and implemented training and development and wellness programs. Prior to that role, Ricardo worked in the human resource department of an insurance defense law firm located in Center City, Philadelphia.

Outside the company, Ricardo serves on the Board of Advisors of PHLDiversity, which is a division of the Pennsylvania Convention & Visitors Bureau, dedicated to helping attract more multicultural visitors to the city and increase Philadelphia's share of the multicultural meetings and tourism markets. Additionally, as an alumni of Central High School, Ricardo regularly volunteers as a part time assistant Wrestling coach.
