Angela M. Lorenz is Of Counsel in Griesing Law, LLC's Alternate Dispute Resolution and Commercial Litigation Practice Group. Angie focuses on workers' compensation defense for a variety of institutional and governmental clients.

Biography

Prior to joining the Firm, Angie worked for several firms throughout the Philadelphia region in their workers' compensation defense departments. In those roles, she was responsible for managing workers' compensation cases from initiation to conclusion which included drafting pleadings, briefs, motions and other legal memoranda; attending administrative and civil hearings, conferences and mediations with judges and counsel; and participating and conducting depositions of fact and expert witnesses. Angie has litigated workers' compensation cases at all state court and appellate levels and has participated in mediation proceedings before workers' compensation judges. Angie was recognized by Pennsylvania Super Lawyers as a Rising Star in workers' compensation in 2010 and 2013.

Angie earned her J.D. from Widener University School of Law and her B.A. from the University of Pittsburgh – Johnstown where she graduated cum laude. While in law school, Angie clerked for the Office of Attorney General, Bureau of Consumer Protection where she drafted memoranda of law and motions on behalf of Pennsylvania consumers, conducted legal research and reviewed documents for legal significance, relevance and confidentiality.

When she is not practicing law, Angie volunteers as a pro bono attorney for Protection From Abuse (PFA) hearings in the Bucks County Court of Common Pleas through Legal Aid of Southeastern Pennsylvania. Angie is also an active volunteer and fundraiser as a member of the Partners In Education Committee at Our Lady of Good Counsel School. Additionally, Angie is the head coach of the Bantam Division of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Youth Organization's (CYO) track and field team.
